Breast B. Herrick and son Raymond of South Framingham, Mass., are here for a few days. He is a graduate of the CALEDONIAN office now in the printing establishment of Dennison Manufacturing Co.

A Sudden Death.

The sudden death of Miss Kathleen Brooks Hurd of Sherbrooke, P. Q., who had many friends and relatives here, was received with much sorrow Tuesday morning. Miss Hurd was spending the vacation season with her parents at Ogonquit, Me., and on the evening of August 6, was out bathing with two companions when a severe electrical shower came up. They left the water and were lying on the beach, when a bolt of lightning struck and killed Miss Hurd and stunned her two companions. The deceased was 21 years old and was to have graduated from Mount Holyoke College next year. The remains were taken to Sherbrooke, where the funeral service was held Thursday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Hurd have the sympathy of their friends here in this sad bereavement.

A Bad Cave-In.

At just about 6 o'clock Friday morning about 15 square feet of the concrete sidewalk dropped into the ground directly in front of Randall & Whitcomb's store.

About 15 years ago when the CALEDONIAN office was located in this block a steam boiler was put under the sidewalk to heat a portion of the block. Within a month this has been replaced by a new boiler, and in putting the new one in the foundation walls of the underground room must have been displaced. The accident happened just before F. J. Torrant drove up with his early mail and it was a close call for him as he always drives over this spot to leave the mail at the post office door. Here the accident occurred at any other time of the day the results might have been very serious.

The Republican Caucus.

The republicans need hardly be reminded of the caucus at the Armory next Friday night at 8 o'clock as local politics were never warmer or more uncertain. Besides the two candidates already mentioned in these columns a number of others have been mentioned and in the list of eligibles we have heard the names of Charles H. Goss, Capt. E. L. Hovey, Robert Mackinnon, George P. Barrett, W. S. Boynton, P. F. Hazen, Henry G. Ely and Frank H. Brooks. It is safe to say there will be a crowd at the caucus and the CALEDONIAN hopes the best man may win.

The Harvard Girl.

This big musical farce, which promises to be one of the successes of the season, will be given at the Stanley Opera House Tuesday, August 21. It is announced as merely a college musical comedy, but there are touches of a serious nature. There is also a rollicking succession of ridiculously funny situations with songs and dances, and the specialties are composed of a number of vaudeville features and choruses.

At the Golf Links.

The North Hatley team did not come last week and most of the players spent the afternoon watching the exciting tennis tournament. Next Saturday the Hanover team are coming up for a match. They will bring eight players and a close match is anticipated.

The Old Pine Golf Club will hold an informal reception at the club house next Tuesday evening for the members of the club and invited guests. In case of rain the reception will be held the following Thursday evening.

The hostesses this week are Mrs. E. H. Ross and Miss Maud Sprague.

More Thieves Captured.

The authorities here were notified by two of Contractor Tilton's men, who were stopping at the Union House, that they had been relieved of a watch and some money. Deputy Sheriff Worthen called up the chief of police in one of the New Hampshire towns, who succeeded in locating the thief, who was brought here where the trial was held Tuesday morning, and he was sentenced to three months at the house of correction at Rutland. He gave his name as Frank Smith, but was found to be Loren Silver of Newport.

Sad Drowning Accident.

Rev. Dr. Edward D. Eaton received news last week of the death at Beloit, Wis., of Henry D. Smith, general secretary of the college and the only son of Rev. Dr. Arthur H. Smith, the veteran missionary to China. The circumstances attending his death were particularly sad as he lost his life trying to save a young lady from drowning. The young lady never recovered consciousness, but the doctors succeeded in resuscitating Mr. Smith who lived only a few hours. Mr. Smith came to St. Johnsbury when his father spoke here at the missionary rally in the spring and made many friends by his genial presence and cultured manners. His father lands at China at about this time and the first news he will receive will be the cable announcing the death of his son.

A Sad Case.

Particularly sad are all the circumstances connected with the sudden death of Mrs. J. J. O'Connell, which occurred Saturday evening. Mr. O'Connell has until very recently been the representative in this vicinity of the International Correspondence School, and they have resided on Clinton Avenue. Through some misunderstanding with the management of the schools, which caused temporary financial embarrassment, Mr. and Mrs. O'Connell both became discouraged, and the crisis came Friday evening when upon his return from the street he heard a shot and upon entering the room smelled smoke, and found that his wife had shot herself, the bullet entering her head. Aid was quickly summoned, and she was taken to Brightlook Hospital, where in spite of the best of care she died Saturday night. Mr. O'Connell, supposing she would recover without doubt, went with their two small children to her mother's home in Dover, N. H., Saturday and did not return until Sunday morning. The remains were taken to her former home Monday morning, for interment. Although the family had lived here but a short time, all the circumstances of this tragedy are so sad that it has cast a gloom over the entire community, and sympathy for the whole family is widespread.

Another Republican Rally.

What will undoubtedly be the closing rally of the campaign has been scheduled for Wednesday evening, Aug. 22, in Music Hall and the speakers will be Hon. Fletcher D. Proctor, the republican candidate for governor, and Hon. J. L. Martin of Brattleboro. A. J. Maxham, also of Brattleboro, and the noted campaign singer, will furnish music for the occasion. Mr. Proctor is making a tour of the state and speaking to crowded houses. He is an exceedingly forceful speaker and his speeches are full of unanswerable facts. Mr. Martin is one of the most eloquent speakers in Vermont.
